Imports Last Month Failed To Be Stimulated by Tariff

Best Sept., 1921, by $50,000,000; Incoming Shipments Smallest Since April

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The flood of imports which had been expected Jaring September in anticipation of the new tariff did not materialize, although the nation's combined imports sad exports for the month showed an increase of more than $50,000,000 over those of September, 1921.

Imports for the month are shown in Department of Commerce figures made public to-day to have totaled $232,000,000, as against $179,000,000 in the same month a year ago. The September figure was about $50,000,000 under the total for August and was the melliest monthly aggregate since last April.

April.

Exports for September were valued at $317,000,000, compared to $824,090,000 in the same month last year, making the total turnover of American foreign commerce $549,000,000, an increase of approximately $50,000,000 over that of September, 1921, but approximately $20,000,000 less than last August. The trade balance in favor of the United States for September was $5,000,000, as compared with -145,570,968 in September, 1921, and $20,000,000 last August.

last August.

For the nine months of this year Por the nine months of this year uding with September exports were alued at $2,740,000,000 and imports 2,184,000,000. As compared with the ame period in 1921 exports decreased 310,000,000, while imports increase 311,000,000. For the nine months of his year the total trade balance in terr of this country was $556,000,000, gainst $1,678,000,000 for the corresponding period of 1921.

ending period of 1921.

A statement by the Commerce Destment said the lower values of imers and exports since January, 1921, compared with previous years did erepresent corresponding declines in same of trade, but were to a great ment a decline in prices.

Large Apartment Project For Audubon Avenue

Dr. Adolph Zeh and the A. G. Gor-man Estate have sold the block front of eight lots on the west side of Audustreets, after an ownership of many streets, after an ownership of many years, for an apartment operation calling for an investment of approximately $450,000. Henry M. Ribeth and Benjamin Rosenblatt were the brokers. The seven northerly lots were sold by Dr. Zeh, who had owned them for thirty-ave years, and the single lot at the 188th Street corner was sold by the Gorman Estate, which owned several blocks in the immediate vicinity.

The property fronts 200 feet on the avenue and 100 feet on each street and has been acquired by builders who will start immediately the erection of two six-story apartment houses, to be ready for occupancy next summer. They will contain suites of three, four and five rooms.

Max N. Natanson purchased 783 Eighth Avenue, a three-story business building, 25x100. The property was held at $80,009 and was sold for cash. James Boyd was the broker.
